

Donna Breitzer • Mezzo-soprano

donnabreitzer@gmail.com

SHORT BIO (~150 words)

Brooklyn-based mezzo-soprano DONNA BREITZER enjoys a varied schedule of solo and ensemble performance in NYC and beyond. A member of the Extra Chorus of The Metropolitan Opera since 2014, she appears regularly with top professional ensembles including the Bard Festival Chorale, New York Virtuoso Singers, and Concert Chorale of New York, alongside renowned orchestras such as the New York Philharmonic, American Symphony Orchestra, American Classical Orchestra, and many others. Recent performance highlights include an Alice Tully Hall solo debut with the American Classical Orchestra and appearances with the Berkshire Bach Society, New York Festival of Song, and St. George's Choral Society. Originally from Saratoga, CA, Donna is a graduate of the University of Michigan and the New England Conservatory of Music, and has enjoyed teaching private voice lessons for over 20 years. She is also the co-founder and Executive Director of Five Boroughs Music Festival, a chamber music presenting organization in NYC.

Rev. Jan 2020